Retirement income seminar for Tauranga

Tauranga, Thursday 2nd June 2016 - A retirement income seminar featuring long standing financial analysts and commentators will present Tauranga with modern retirement income solutions.

The seminar, run by Lifetime Income, a New Zealand company specialising in modern retirement income solutions will inform and discuss retirement income solutions used internationally.

“The ability to convert retirement savings into a reliable, secure income to supplement New Zealand Superannuation is a fundamental issue for all those considering or in retirement,” says Ralph Stewart, Chief Executive of Lifetime Income.

Guest speakers will include financial journalist and commentator Bernard Hickey, leading economist and financial commentator Shamubeel Equab and local financial adviser and commentator Jane Benton.

“The key challenge for retirees today, given low investment returns and longer life expectancy, is how to make sure they don’t run out of money while still being able to enjoy their retirement,” says Jane Benton of G3 Financial Freedom.

Dr Judith Davey retirement expert at Victoria University, will host the hour and a half seminar focused on practical income requirements in retirement.

The seminar “Practical Retirement Income Solutions,” be held at Classic Flyers Aviation Museum on Tuesday 14th June at 2:00pm or 5:30pm.

To reserve your place at the seminar, please call Lifetime Income on (04) 472 7902 or register at their website lifetimeincome.co.nz.
